

Executive Biography

Jake Reynolds

General Partner, TCV; SolArc Board of Directors

Involved in the venture capital industry since 1993, Jake Reynolds joined Technology Crossover Ventures (TCV) in 1997. Reynolds' primary investment focus is in the software eCommerce and business services industries. He has been involved with TCV investments in Altiris (acquired by Symantec), BenefitMall (acquired by Allied Capital), Brightmail (acquired by Symantec), Capella Education, Clareon (acquired by BancBoston), Ejasent (acquired by Veritas), eLoyalty, Ex|Service, Global 360, GMI, Homegain (acquired by Classified Ventures), Intraware, SolArc, Solect Technology Group (acquired by Amdocs), TechTarget, Webroot, XACCT Technologies (acquired by Amdocs) and YouCentric (acquired by JD Edwards).

Prior to joining TCV, Reynolds was an associate with General Atlantic, a global growth equity firm, where he focused on software and business services investments. Reynolds worked closely with many General Atlantic investment companies including Baan, Compuware, E-Trade Group, Envoy and Legent. Prior to joining General Atlantic, Reynolds was a member of the mergers and acquisitions group at Lazard Freres & Co., where he focused on the technology and telecom industries.

Jake is currently on the board of directors of Capella Education, Global 360, Seismic Micro-Technology, SolArc and Webroot.

Reynolds received a bachelor's degree in geography from Dartmouth College and a MBA from Columbia Business School, where he earned Beta Gamma Sigma honors.

9701 Richmond Avenue
Suite 250
Houston, Texas 77042-4643
Phone: 713-260-5100
Fax: 713-339-4337
Web: www.solarc.com

